

CHANUKAH CATERING 2015

212.987.0885 ext. 4 • catering@elizabar.com

CHANUKAH GIFT BASKET

Eli's Chanukah basket contains the essentials for a beautiful and delicious family celebration. There's kosher tapenade for spreading on Eli's famous crisps. The nuts, candy, and chocolate gelt are all kosher, and there are candles to light. The delicious non-kosher bread menorah is made with Eli's classic challah dough.

Chanukah Celebration $100
Chanukah Celebration Deluxe $150

OUR KOSHER WINES

We are happy to be able to offer a growing list of wonderful kosher wines. These are well made, accessible wines to be enjoyed beyond the holiday season. Call Eli's List for wine recommendations to go with your meal at 212.717.1999 or visit us at www.elizabarwine.com to order online.

Consider adding a Kosher wine to your basket:
Upper Galilee "Yiron Vineyard" Pinot Noir Galil Mountain $25
From a high elevation vineyard in the most northern part of Galilee, this wine displays beautiful Pinot fruit, with cherry and pomegranate notes, and soft, elegant tannins.

CHANUKAH CATERING TRADITIONS & SWEETS

TRADITIONS

Chicken Soup with Two Matzoh Balls

Extra matzoh balls are available.
$16 / quart

Potato Latkes

To serve with sour cream and applesauce or as Eli does with caviar.
$18 / half dozen

Fresh Applesauce

$12 / pint

American Caviar

Farm-raised white sturgeon
2 oz / $150
4 oz / $300
9 oz / $675

Salmon Roe

5 oz / $25

Smoked Whitefish

$15 / half pint

Traditional Chopped Liver

Delightfully dense and traditional in taste.
A classic.
$12 / half pint

2 lb. Roasted Free-Range Chicken

Whole, or cut to order into quarters or eighths.
$21 / each (serves 2-3)

Old-Fashioned Brisket of Beef

Eli has been cooking and eating brisket his whole life—he knows a thing or two about what makes it great.
$45 / pound

Fresh Brisket Gravy

$12 / pint

SWEETS

Jelly Doughnuts

A raspberry jam-filled Chanukah tradition.
$21 / half dozen
A bite-sized version:
$12 / half dozen

Jelly Doughnut Bread Pudding

Eli invented this deliciously untraditional bread pudding when he found himself with too many jelly doughnuts. It's become a Chanukah tradition for many New Yorkers.
$15 / 1 pound
$30 / 2 pounds

Decorated Chanukah Cookies

Iced shortbread stars, dreidels, and menorahs. An excellent gift.
$25 / box of 5

Catering orders: 212.987.0885 ext. 4
or email: catering@elizabar.com

CHANUKAH ONLINE

"The gift of food is always in good taste"

Challah Menorah

There are a lot of ways to braid a challah.
To celebrate Chanukah we've twisted together this whimsical, bread menorah and added it to our festival of light.
$45 / 1 pound

Kosher Challah Pair

Eli Zabar is New York's most famous bread baker and Friday nights got a lot more delicious when he opened a kosher bakery.
Should you find yourself with leftovers, these egg-y braids make excellent French toast.
Two 1.25-pound kosher challah loaves in each order.
$18

Kosher Jerusalem Loaf

An artisanally made European-style bread with a mild sour flavor, a rustic texture, and a thick crust that helps keep it fresh. This traditional 1.5-pound loaf is a particular favorite of Eli's.
$8

Kosher Raisin Nut Rounds

One of Eli's original (and most popular) bread recipes is now available from his kosher bakery. Buyer beware—this pair of half-pound loaves, dense with raisins and pecans, is known to be addictive!
$10

Smoked Salmon

Eli's salmon arrives from Scotland fresh out of the water and is smoked right here in
New York City.
$85 / 1.5 pounds

Kosher Basket

Eli's Kosher Basket contains bread and chocolate babka from his kosher bakery,
as well as his famous kosher crisps, nuts, chocolates, smoked salmon, and fresh and dried fruit. This is a basket you can be confident will please the recipient.
$150 / Kosher Basket
$250 / Kosher Basket Medium
$350 / Kosher Basket Large

Chocolate-Covered Graham Crackers

Dunk them in a glass of milk for a late-night snack or enjoy them around a campfire with toasted marshmallows—s'mores from heaven.
Send some off to kids away at college to remind them that they'll always be your babies (and to call home).
$35 / 1.5 pounds

Almond Butter Crunch

Who doesn't love butter crunch?
It's impossible to resist this enticing combination of crunchy toffee, milk chocolate, and crushed almonds, served in a basket tied up with a bow.
$18 / 12 ounces

Online orders: www.elizabar.com or call 866.354.3547

